

CURRICULUM VITAE SUMMARY

Glenn Hugh McKinlay

(December 2010)

---

Contents

---

Personal details .....	Error! Bookmark not defined.
Professional skills and expertise .....	1
Work history .....	2
Education .....	3

---

Email: gmckinlay@hotmail.com
Please email for current phone numbers

Professional skills and expertise

- Economic and Social Statistics, including collection, processing, analysis and dissemination.
- Capacity building and small country statistical office management, team leadership, project management, and process improvement in official statistical contexts.

Subject areas have included:

- Economic Statistics: National Accounts, Trade Statistics and Customs Modernisation (PC Trade), business surveys, short term economic indicators, price indexes, central banking statistics (Overseas Exchange Transactions (BOP), Money and Banking), survey redevelopment, employment statistics, HIES development, developing use of administrative data, Supply-Use tables, Social Accounting Matrix.
- Social Statistics: Demography including projections, estimates, analysis and research, migration statistics, ethnicity statistics. Population censuses.

Work history

2010, 2 months technical assistance: Lesotho

Employer: E.U. / ECOTEC research and consulting
Role: Economic Statistics Consultant
Subjects: Assisting with 2009 update of GDP, Supply-Use tables and Social Accounting Matrix. Development of training plan for Lesotho National Accounts.

2010, 5 months technical assistance: Federated States of Micronesia & Marshall Islands

Employer: Pacific Islands Training Initiative, Graduate School, USDA (Hawaii)
Role: Economic Statistics Consultant
Subjects: Update economic statistics for US Compact of Free Association reporting. Development of GDP by Industry and improving GDP in constant prices for the Marshall Islands.

2009, 2 months technical assistance: Lesotho

Employer: E.U. / ECOTEC research and consulting
Role: Economic Statistics Consultant
Subjects: Assisting update of GDP (expenditure and production), improving external trade estimates and subsequent refinement/expansion of the Supply-Use tables and Social Accounting Matrix.

2009, 4 months technical assistance: Federated States of Micronesia & Marshall Islands

Employer: Pacific Islands Training Initiative, Graduate School, USDA (Hawaii)
Role: Economic Statistics Consultant
Subjects: Update economic statistics for US Compact of Free Association reporting plus system improvements. Development of GDP by industry.

2008-2009, 6 months technical assistance (5 visits): Lesotho

Employer: DFID/Helm Corporation
Role: National Accounts Consultant
Subjects: Develop GDP expenditure via Supply-Use framework, assist with GDP production, data source development, Social Accounting Matrix model.

2007-2008, Full time advisory position: Seychelles

Employer: Government of Seychelles/National Statistics Bureau
Role: National Accounts Consultant
Subjects: Redevelopment of National Accounts for a new independent Statistical Authority, including capacity building and training.

2007 October, Meeting presenter/facilitator

Employer: Secretariat of the Pacific Community/ Forum Fisheries Agency
Role/Subject: Engaged for Special Session on Fisheries Statistics at the triennial Pacific Regional Heads of Planning and Statistics meeting.

2007, 3 months Technical Assistance (2 visits): Federated States of Micronesia & Marshall Islands

Employer: Pacific Islands Training Initiative, Graduate School, USDA (Hawaii)
Role: Economic Statistics Consultant
Subjects: Update economic statistics for US Compact of Free Association reporting plus some system improvements/training, and a visit to Palau.

2006, delivery of short course on National Accounts for Pacific-Micronesia sub-region

Employer: IMF/Pacific Financial and Technical Assistance Centre
Role: Lecturer/Trainer
Subjects: Co-delivery of the IMF short course on the System of National Accounts (SNA), tailored for the small countries of this sub-region.

2006, 4 months Technical Assistance: Palau

Employer: UNDP / Bureau of Budget and Planning
Role: National Accounts Consultant
Subjects: Assistance to streamline National Accounts, including employment and tax data, corporate financial statements and other data.

2006, 2 months Technical Assistance (2 visits): Federated States of Micronesia

Employer: FSM Government Compact Management Unit/Economic Affairs Dept
Role: Statistics Advisor
Subjects: Update of economic statistics for US Compact of Free Association reporting, plus some system improvements and training.

2005-2006, 8 months Technical Assistance (4 visits): Marshall Islands

Employer: Asian Development Bank / Economic Policy Planning Statistics Office
Role: Statistics Advisor
Subjects: Statistical capacity building to develop National Accounts, employment statistics, tax data and other statistics.

2005 Jan-May: Population Census Management: Timor Leste

Employer: UNFPA / Dirrecao Nacional de Estadistica
Role: Population Census Project Co-ordinator / Census Analyst
Subjects: Managed team of 12 internationals/local staff. Census processing, tabulations, demographic analysis, GIS in Census, population projections, and capacity building.

2001-2004: Federated States of Micronesia

Employer: AUSAID / FSM Department of Economic Affairs, Division of Statistics
Role: Statistics capacity building and management advisor,
Subjects: Trade and Customs automation (PC Trade), National accounts (business survey and tax data), CPI, BOP, HIES, Population Census.

1999-2001 Tonga

Employer: National Reserve Bank of Tonga (Central Bank)
Role: Statistics Advisor and acting head of Research Department
Subjects: National Accounts, BOP and Monetary Statistics, short term economic indicators, economic forecasting.

1988-1999: New Zealand

Employer: Statistics New Zealand (NSO)
1999: Head, Annual National Accounts Section
1998: Business Statistics: Team leader, Annual Business Survey output phase
Team member, Annual Business Survey redesign
1997: Business Statistics: Team member Producer Price Index redevelopment
1996-97: Team member /Acting manager: Population Census Quality Evaluation
1992-96: Research Officer: Demographic Projections
1988-92: Research Officer: Demographic Analysis

Education

Bachelor of Science (Geography): Canterbury University, New Zealand, conferred May 1988. Subjects; Human and Physical Geography, Statistics and Mathematics

Vocational Training including:

Pacific Regional workshop on Trade Statistics (United Nations), 2001
Pacific Regional Central Banking Training Course, 2000
In house training with Statistics New Zealand, 1988-1999
Private communication/leadership training, 1991-96